

Euchre tournament

Official Rules

- General rules will follow the book of Hoyle Rules unless stated differently below
- Game length – 2 times around the table – everyone deals twice
- First Black Jack dealt will start the deal in the game
- Five cards are dealt to each player, one at a time or in multiples of 2's and 3's
 - If there is a miss deal, deal is passed to the next player - no points are tallied for either team
- If the first three players pass the call on the second round, the dealer must make trump
- There will be no partners best if a player is to go alone. If a player does go alone, and all 5 tricks are taken, a score of 6 will be awarded to the winning team. If less than 5 tricks are taken, each team earns the number of points for tricks taken.
- Scoring is based on the number of tricks taken. A point is awarded for each trick taken during the hand.
- If a player does not follow suit when able to, the opposing team is automatically awarded two points in addition to points earned during the hand.
- The winning team moves to the next table and changes partners with the team still seated. Losing Team remains at the table and switches partners with the incoming team.
- If a player does not follow suit when is able to, the opposing team is automatically awarded two points in addition to points earned during the hand.
- If a player does not follow suit when is able to, the opposing team is automatically awarded two points in addition to points earned during the hand.
- PLEASE NO TABLE TALK! DON'T INSINUATE THAT YOU MAY OR MAY NOT HAVE SOMETHING TO INFLUENCE YOUR PARTNERS CALL.

HAVE FUN!
